

An RFP, or Request for Proposals, is a set of documents including a Statement of Work that describes the testing project to potential bidders.